This friendly, family-run complex of studios is situated on the seafront in the village of Karaoglanoglu approximately 3 km West of Kyrenia. The complex has been decorated in Cypriot style throughout, with traditional handicrafts adding a homely feel.

The large swimming pool and children's pool are set in attractive gardens, surrounded by flowers and palms and overlook the sea, or take the amphitheatre style steps down to the private partially man-made beach area. In the summer, meals are served on the terrace under vine-covered trellises overlooking the beach area and in winter the cosy restaurant with its open fire is used. Specialities are traditional Cypriot, Turkish and vegetarian cuisine where most vegetables are from our garden. The standard studios are either twin-bedded garden studios or larger galleried family rooms over two floors which can sleep up to four.
